

Appreciating Your God-Given Uniqueness

1 Samuel 8:4-7

- I. "All the elders of Israel...came to Samuel," 1 Samuel 8:4.
- II. "Appoint a King to lead us such as all the other nations have,"
1 Samuel 8:5.
- III. "The Lord ..." said "...they have rejected me as their King,"
1 Samuel 8:7.
 - A. God's people failed to appreciate their God-given uniqueness.
 1. God purposefully set Abraham apart from all other humans, Genesis 12:1.
 2. He intended to make Abraham's descendants a "one of a kind" people –a people who loved God and obeyed His word.
 - B. Only their God assigned differences made Israel an unmistakable message from God to the human race, Isaiah 60:1, 61:3, 9.
- IV. Appreciating your God-given uniqueness.
 - A. You are God's one of a kind message to the human race.
 1. Why do Christians dislike their uniqueness?
 2. We don't know who we are.
 3. You are a demonstration of God's creative genius, Psalm 139:13, 119:73; Isaiah 44:24; Jeremiah 1:5; Ephesians 2:10.
 4. Look at unchangeable differences as distinctive marks of God's ownership, John 20:27; Galatians 6:17.
 5. Reject the temptation to compare yourself to others, John 21:20-22.
 6. You are like a finger print –similar to all others, but distinctively different; no one else illustrates God's genius like you, Galatians 1:22-24.
 - B. Your uniqueness rejoices God's heart.
 1. The mark of genius-ability to create innumerable "originals."
 2. What makes an "original?" Subtle differences that separate each creation from everything else He made.
 3. You are His unequaled delight, Zephaniah 3:17.
- V. "Thanks God for making me unique!" Psalm 139:14.

Appreciating Your God-Given Uniqueness

1 Samuel 8:4-7

- I. "All the elders of Israel...came to Samuel," 1 Samuel 8:4.
- II. "Appoint a King to lead us such as all the other nations have,"
1 Samuel 8:5.
- III. "The Lord ..." said "...they have rejected me as their King,"
1 Samuel 8:7.
 - A. God's people failed to appreciate their God-given uniqueness.
 1. God purposefully set Abraham apart from all other humans, Genesis 12:1.
 2. He intended to make Abraham's descendants a "one of a kind" people—a people who loved God and obeyed His word.
 - B. Only their God assigned differences made Israel an unmistakable message from God to the human race, Isaiah 60:1, 61:3, 9.
- IV. Appreciating your God-given uniqueness.
 - A. You are God's one of a kind message to the human race.
 1. Why do Christians dislike their uniqueness?
 2. We don't know who we are.
 3. You are a demonstration of God's creative genius, Psalm 139:13, 119:73; Isaiah 44:24; Jeremiah 1:5; Ephesians 2:10.
 4. Look at unchangeable differences as distinctive marks of God's ownership, John 20:27; Galatians 6:17.
 5. Reject the temptation to compare yourself to others, John 21:20-22.
 6. You are like a finger print—similar to all others, but distinctively different; no one else illustrates God's genius like you, Galatians 1:22-24.
 - B. Your uniqueness rejoices God's heart.
 1. The mark of genius-ability to create innumerable "originals."
 2. What makes an "original?" Subtle differences that separate each creation from everything else He made.
 3. You are His unequaled delight, Zephaniah 3:17.
- V. "Thanks God for making me unique!" Psalm 139:14.