Flowing with Life’s Unwanted Changes
Acts 2:42, 44-47; 4:32 & 33

   A. A cocoon of love and security.
   B. The good life.
II. “A great persecution broke out against the church” Acts 8:1.
   A. “All” the believers “were scattered,” Acts 8:1.
   C. “Saul began to destroy the Church,” Acts 8:3.
III. Believers flowed with unwanted changes, Acts 8:4.
IV. Flowing with life’s unwanted changes.
   A. Let Jesus help you flow with the stream of life.
      2. Unwanted changes interrupt the flow.
      3. We react to unwanted changes: “No! Why this? Why doesn’t God help?” “Stop!”
   B. Let Jesus teach you a new stroke.
      1. Unwanted change–opportunity to learn a new stroke, Acts 8:5 &17.
      2. Give yourself time to recover from the shock of change.
      4. Ask Him to open your eyes to hidden opportunities, Isaiah 43:19.
V. Our salvation springs from Jewish believers’ willingness to flow with life’s unwanted changes, Acts 11:19-20.

Flowing with Life’s Unwanted Changes
Acts 2:42, 44-47; 4:32 & 33

   A. A cocoon of love and security.
   B. The good life.
II. “A great persecution broke out against the church” Acts 8:1.
   A. “All” the believers “were scattered,” Acts 8:1.
   C. “Saul began to destroy the Church,” Acts 8:3.
III. Believers flowed with unwanted changes, Acts 8:4.
IV. Flowing with life’s unwanted changes.
   A. Let Jesus help you flow with the stream of life.
      2. Unwanted changes interrupt the flow.
      3. We react to unwanted changes: “No! Why this? Why doesn’t God help?” “Stop!”
   B. Let Jesus teach you a new stroke.
      1. Unwanted change–opportunity to learn a new stroke, Acts 8:5 &17.
      2. Give yourself time to recover from the shock of change.
      4. Ask Him to open your eyes to hidden opportunities, Isaiah 43:19.
V. Our salvation springs from Jewish believers’ willingness to flow with life’s unwanted changes, Acts 11:19-20.