

Keep Up Your Courage

Acts 27:14-15, 17-20 & 22-25

- I. "A wind of hurricane force...swept down," Acts 27:14.
- II. "The ship was caught by the storm," Acts 27:15.
- III. "They passed ropes under the ship to hold it together," Acts 27:17.
- IV. Violently battered by wind and wave, Acts 27:18 & 19.
- V. Hopelessness sets in, Acts 27:20.
- VI. "Keep up your courage," Acts 27:22.
  - A. Give yourself to your Owner, Acts 27:23.
    1. The proud owner of "treasured possessions," Exodus 19:5; Deuteronomy 7:6, 14:2; 26:18; Titus 2:14.
    2. Ownership brings responsibility.
    3. So, confidently rely on our Responsible Owner, Proverbs 1:33.
  - B. Trust the One Who designed you around His plan, Acts 27:24.
    1. "You are God's sent one," Psalm 139:16; John 20:21.
    2. When danger lurks, remain confident in the Performer of the plan, Psalm 57:2; 138:8; 115:3; Job 42:2.
    3. Trust keeps our courage up.
  - C. Cling to God's unalterable predictions.
    1. Everyone predicted doom, Acts 27:20.
    2. Paul accepted only God's predictions, Acts 27:23-25.
    3. Not predictions of trouble-free living, Acts 27:26; John 16:33.
    4. God predicts victory in spite of trouble, Romans 8:28; James 1:2-3.
    5. All victors tenaciously* grip God's predictions, Acts 27:25.
- VII. Expect the benefits of keeping your courage up, Acts 28:30-31 with Ephesians 3:20.

*Tenacious- not easily pulled apart

Keep Up Your Courage

Acts 27:14-15, 17-20 & 22-25

- I. "A wind of hurricane force...swept down," Acts 27:14.
- II. "The ship was caught by the storm," Acts 27:15.
- III. "They passed ropes under the ship to hold it together," Acts 27:17.
- IV. Violently battered by wind and wave, Acts 27:18 & 19.
- V. Hopelessness sets in, Acts 27:20.
- VI. "Keep up your courage," Acts 27:22.
  - A. Give yourself to your Owner, Acts 27:23.
    1. The proud owner of "treasured possessions," Exodus 19:5; Deuteronomy 7:6, 14:2; 26:18; Titus 2:14.
    2. Ownership brings responsibility.
    3. So, confidently rely on our Responsible Owner, Proverbs 1:33.
  - B. Trust the One Who designed you around His plan, Acts 27:24.
    1. "You are God's sent one," Psalm 139:16; John 20:21.
    2. When danger lurks, remain confident in the Performer of the plan, Psalm 57:2; 138:8; 115:3; Job 42:2.
    3. Trust keeps our courage up.
  - C. Cling to God's unalterable predictions.
    1. Everyone predicted doom, Acts 27:20.
    2. Paul accepted only God's predictions, Acts 27:23-25.
    3. Not predictions of trouble-free living, Acts 27:26; John 16:33.
    4. God predicts victory in spite of trouble, Romans 8:28; James 1:2-3.
    5. All victors tenaciously* grip God's predictions, Acts 27:25.
- VII. Expect the benefits of keeping your courage up, Acts 28:30-31 with Ephesians 3:20.

*Tenacious- not easily pulled apart