

Presenting Yourself to the Lord Exodus 34:1-5

- I. "Be ready in the morning..." to "present yourself to me..."
Exodus 34:2.
- A. "Present yourself"—to offer self, to place self in the presence of or before the face of
 - B. To make self available to God, Acts 1:4, 3:1.
 - C. Not reporting for duty but giving self to a relationship.
 - D. Making a present of self to God, Job 1:6, 2:1.
- II. Presenting yourself to the Lord
- A. Appreciate how much God values your presence.
 - 1. Valued Moses for His own worth, Exodus 33:12, 17; Mark 3:14.
 - 2. God craves human fellowship, Exodus 19:4; John 14:3, 17:24.
 - 3. God's delight in us motivates His craving for us, Psalm 149:4; Zephaniah 3:17.
 - B. Accept your God-given privilege.
 - 1. God alone issues invitations into His presence, Revelation 3:20; John 6:44, 65; Numbers 16:5.
 - 2. Acceptance requires the temporary putting aside of all else: "Moses went up early." Exodus 34:4; Matthew 6:6; Luke 5:16.
 - 3. Making yourself a present to God—eternity's greatest privilege.
 - C. Anticipate the Lord's response: "The Lord came down...and stood there with him," Exodus 34:5.
 - 1. God always shares Himself with those who share themselves with Him.
 - 2. Accept "intensity levels;" low, mid, high.
 - 3. God's unbreakable promise to those who present themselves to Him, Matthew 6:33.

Presenting Yourself to the Lord Exodus 34:1-5

- I. "Be ready in the morning..." to "present yourself to me..."
Exodus 34:2.
- A. "Present yourself"—to offer self, to place self in the presence of or before the face of
 - B. To make self available to God, Acts 1:4, 3:1.
 - C. Not reporting for duty but giving self to a relationship.
 - D. Making a present of self to God, Job 1:6, 2:1.
- II. Presenting yourself to the Lord
- A. Appreciate how much God values your presence.
 - 1. Valued Moses for His own worth, Exodus 33:12, 17; Mark 3:14.
 - 2. God craves human fellowship, Exodus 19:4; John 14:3, 17:24.
 - 3. God's delight in us motivates His craving for us, Psalm 149:4; Zephaniah 3:17.
 - B. Accept your God-given privilege.
 - 1. God alone issues invitations into His presence, Revelation 3:20; John 6:44, 65; Numbers 16:5.
 - 2. Acceptance requires the temporary putting aside of all else: "Moses went up early." Exodus 34:4; Matthew 6:6; Luke 5:16.
 - 3. Making yourself a present to God—eternity's greatest privilege.
 - C. Anticipate the Lord's response: "The Lord came down...and stood there with him," Exodus 34:5.
 - 1. God always shares Himself with those who share themselves with Him.
 - 2. Accept "intensity levels;" low, mid, high.
 - 3. God's unbreakable promise to those who present themselves to Him, Matthew 6:33.

A Prayer Guide

Start at “Begin” and move clockwise. Fill in the number of minutes for each segment. Spend that amount of time worshipping, supplicating, interceding, etc.

A Prayer Guide

Start at “Begin” and move clockwise. Fill in the number of minutes for each segment. Spend that amount of time worshipping, supplicating, interceding, etc.

