

Successfully Dealing with Life's Unfairness

Acts 12:1-4, 11

- I. "King Herod arrested some intending to persecute them", Acts 12:1.
- II. "He had James...put to death...", Act 12:2
- III. "He...seized Peter", Acts 12:2
- IV. "The Lord sent His angel and rescued..." Peter "from Herod's clutches", Acts 12;11.
- V. Why didn't God rescue James? Where's the fairness?
- VI. Successfully dealing with life's unfairness".
  - A. Quit trying to explain "unfairness."
    1. We love to explain, to find reasons and causes.
    2. Attempt to explain unfairness by blaming Luke 13:1-5; John 9:1-3.
    3. Blame breeds bitterness but we want inner sweetness.
    4. So, admit that you can't always explain unfairness.
    5. Meditate on what you know not what you guess, Psalm 139:5 6; Philippians 4:8.
    6. What we know: Deuteronomy 32:4; Acts 10:34; Romans 2:11.
  - B. Keep pleasing God.
    1. Unfairness strikes Joseph again, Genesis 39: 2, 6, 20.
    2. The temptation: give up on doing what is right.
    3. Resist the temptation, I Peter 4:19.
      - a. Commit self to God.
      - b. Genesis 39:22, 23; 40:4:
- VII. God's promise to all who successful deal with life's unfairness, Romans 2:7.
