

Unhindered by Hindsight

Genesis 37:3-8, 28; 39:20

- I. "When his brothers saw that..." Jacob "...loved...Joseph...more than any of them, they hated him..." Genesis 37:4.
- II. "They hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said," Genesis 37:8.
- III. "...His brothers...sold him..." Genesis 37:28.
- IV. Another 'mistake' and consequences, Genesis 39:11, 20.
- V. Unhindered by hindsight, Joseph moved on with life, Genesis 39:22.
- VI. Living unhindered by hindsight.
  - A. Trust God's ability to use the unpleasant past.
    1. Hindsight mourns the valuelessness of past unpleasantness.
    2. Hindsight grieves over the loss of past pleasantness.
    3. Hindsight forgets God's ability to use everything for His purposes.
    4. God's infinite ability, Proverbs 16:4; Philippians 1:12; Acts 2:36.
  - B. Refuse to dwell on hindsight, Isaiah 43:18.
    1. Dwell-keep attention directed toward.
    2. A deliberate choice, Philippians 3:13.
    3. Replace human hindsight with divine foresight, Philippians 4:8; Jeremiah 29:11; Romans 8:28.
  - C. Move forward with your life.
    1. When life appeared to slip backward, Joseph moved forward, Genesis 39:2-4, 22.
    2. Everything God made moves: God likes motion.
    3. So, He designed our life to "move forward" toward Jesus' likeness, 2 Corinthians 3:18.
    4. Always keep focused on God's goal: forward motion.
- VII. The reward for living unhindered by hindsight? Irresistible fruitfulness, Genesis 41:52; Jeremiah 17:7-8.

Unhindered by Hindsight

Genesis 37:3-8, 28; 39:20

- I. "When his brothers saw that..." Jacob "...loved...Joseph...more than any of them, they hated him..." Genesis 37:4.
- II. "They hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said," Genesis 37:8.
- III. "...His brothers...sold him..." Genesis 37:28.
- IV. Another 'mistake' and consequences, Genesis 39:11, 20.
- V. Unhindered by hindsight, Joseph moved on with life, Genesis 39:22.
- VI. Living unhindered by hindsight.
  - A. Trust God's ability to use the unpleasant past.
    1. Hindsight mourns the valuelessness of past unpleasantness.
    2. Hindsight grieves over the loss of past pleasantness.
    3. Hindsight forgets God's ability to use everything for His purposes.
    4. God's infinite ability, Proverbs 16:4; Philippians 1:12; Acts 2:36.
  - B. Refuse to dwell on hindsight, Isaiah 43:18.
    1. Dwell-keep attention directed toward.
    2. A deliberate choice, Philippians 3:13.
    3. Replace human hindsight with divine foresight, Philippians 4:8; Jeremiah 29:11; Romans 8:28.
  - C. Move forward with your life.
    1. When life appeared to slip backward, Joseph moved forward, Genesis 39:2-4, 22.
    2. Everything God made moves: God likes motion.
    3. So, He designed our life to "move forward" toward Jesus' likeness, 2 Corinthians 3:18.
    4. Always keep focused on God's goal: forward motion.
- VII. The reward for living unhindered by hindsight? Irresistible fruitfulness, Genesis 41:52; Jeremiah 17:7-8.