

Welcoming God's Predictions about Your Future

2 Kings 6:24-25, 28, 7:1-2

- I. The "... king of Aram mobilized his entire army and ... laid siege to Samaria, 2 Kings 6:24.
- II. "...There was a great famine in the city....A donkey's head sold for $50, and a pint of dove's dung sold for $3!" 2 Kings 6:25.
- III. Cannibalism! 2 Kings 6:28.
- IV. The Lord predicts an improving future: "Two gallons of flour or four gallons of barley...will be sold for a dollar!" 2 Kings 7:1.
- V. A human refuses to welcome God's prediction: "That couldn't happen if the Lord made windows in the sky!" 2 Kings 7:2.
- VI. Welcoming God's predictions about your future.
 - A. Expect God's predictions to contradict your "feelings".
 1. God's prediction contradicted everything people felt.
 2. When "feelings" rule us, we close the door to God's predictions, 2 Kings 7:2; Exodus 6:8-9.
 3. When faith in God rules, we deny "feelings" and welcome God's predictions, 2 Kings 7:1; Hebrews 11:1, 17-19.
 4. Don't worry about the "unbelievableness" of His predictions, Proverbs 3:5; Mark 9:24; Ezekiel 37:1-3.
 5. Trust God to perform his predictions, Romans 4:21; Jeremiah 1:12; Psalms 111:5.
 - B. Put out a welcome mat for God's predictions.
 1. The human mind refuses to welcome God's predictions, Romans 8:7; 2 Kings 7:2.
 2. The renewed mind puts out a welcome mat for God's predictions, 2 Kings 7:1; Romans 12:2.
 3. The source of a renewed mind, Joshua 1:8.
- VII. God's response to Elisha's faith in divine predictions, 2 Kings 7:6-7, 15.

Welcoming God's Predictions about Your Future

2 Kings 6:24-25, 28, 7:1-2

- I. The "... king of Aram mobilized his entire army and ... laid siege to Samaria, 2 Kings 6:24.
- II. "...There was a great famine in the city....A donkey's head sold for $50, and a pint of dove's dung sold for $3!" 2 Kings 6:25.
- III. Cannibalism! 2 Kings 6:28.
- IV. The Lord predicts an improving future: "Two gallons of flour or four gallons of barley...will be sold for a dollar!" 2 Kings 7:1.
- V. A human refuses to welcome God's prediction: "That couldn't happen if the Lord made windows in the sky!" 2 Kings 7:2.
- VI. Welcoming God's predictions about your future.
 - A. Expect God's predictions to contradict your "feelings".
 1. God's prediction contradicted everything people felt.
 2. When "feelings" rule us, we close the door to God's predictions, 2 Kings 7:2; Exodus 6:8-9.
 3. When faith in God rules, we deny "feelings" and welcome God's predictions, 2 Kings 7:1; Hebrews 11:1, 17-19.
 4. Don't worry about the "unbelievableness" of His predictions, Proverbs 3:5; Mark 9:24; Ezekiel 37:1-3.
 5. Trust God to perform his predictions, Romans 4:21; Jeremiah 1:12; Psalms 111:5.
 - B. Put out a welcome mat for God's predictions.
 1. The human mind refuses to welcome God's predictions, Romans 8:7; 2 Kings 7:2.
 2. The renewed mind puts out a welcome mat for God's predictions, 2 Kings 7:1; Romans 12:2.
 3. The source of a renewed mind, Joshua 1:8.
- VII. God's response to Elisha's faith in divine predictions, 2 Kings 7:6-7, 15.