

As We Eagerly Wait for Jesus' Return.
I Corinthians 1:7-9

- I. "Many of the Corinthians who heard him believed and were baptized," Acts 18:8
- II. "Paul stayed for a year and a half teaching them the word of God", Acts 18:11
- III. A startling message to Corinthian ears: The ascended Jesus will return, Matthew 16:27; John 14:3; Acts 1:10-11.
- IV. "Paul, we're struggling!"
- V. As you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus
  - A. He will keep you strong to the end.
    1. Paul wanted the Corinthians to know what Jesus is doing now!
    2. Jesus commits Himself to keeping us strong until the end of earthly life.
    3. Paul pointed to Jesus' strength not to Corinthian weakness.
      - a. We only fear our weakness when we forget about Jesus' power, Exodus 4:10,12; 5:22; 6:1,8; Matthew 14:15-18.
      - b. We admit our weakness so we can rely on Jesus' power.
      - c. Refuse to see your weakness as greater than His power, Philippians 4:13; Psalms 18:29
    4. When you feel as weak as water, the powerful God clings to you, 1 Corinthians 10:13.
    5. "I appreciate my weakness," 2 Corinthians 12:9-10.
  - B. You will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ," I Corinthians 1:8
    1. Jesus intends to keep you strong. Why?
    2. Because He wants to proudly present you to His Father. Jude 24; 2 Corinthians 4:13-14.
    3. We will adorn Jesus like the jewels in a rulers crown. Daniel 12:3; Malachi 3:17; Matthew 13:43.
    4. God commits His infinite person and inexhaustible power to keeping us blameless, I Peter 1:5.
- VI. As we eagerly wait for Jesus, let's be confident in His commitment to preparing us for His return.
