

God's Extraordinary People John 6:5-11

- I. An ordinary event takes on extraordinary meaning.
 - A. Take this lunch!
 - B. Here's an ordinary lunch." John 6:9.
 - C. The ordinary becomes extraordinary, John. 6:11
- II. God sees you as an extraordinary person.
 - A. "But I only do ordinary things."
 - 1. Christian slaves complain of "ordinary life."
 - 2. "I don't want to be ordinary,"
1 Corinthians 12:15-16.
 - B. It's not what you do; it's who you are.
 - 1. How God judges our value, 1 Samuel 16:7;
Zephaniah 3:17; Deuteronomy 7:6, 14:2,
26:18.
 - 2. God values people who only perform the ordinary, Matthew 3:17; Mark 12:42-44.
 - C. God makes you extraordinary, Deuteronomy 7:6,
14:2; John. 15:16; 1 Peter 2:9-10.
- III. Extraordinary people perform extra-ordinary deeds.
 - A. A mistake in judgment: Deeds give meaning to people, Matthew 7:22-23.
 - B. Correct judgment: The person gives meaning
to the deed, Matthew 10:42; Colossians 3:22-23;
Psalm 56:8; Mark 14:9.
- IV. Ordinary deeds receive extraordinary rewards,
2 Chronicles 15:7; 2 Corinthians 4:17; Hebrews 6:10;
Jeremiah 31:16.

God's Extraordinary People John 6:5-11

- I. An ordinary event takes on extraordinary meaning.
 - A. Take this lunch!
 - B. Here's an ordinary lunch." John 6:9.
 - C. The ordinary becomes extraordinary, John. 6:11
- II. God sees you as an extraordinary person.
 - A. "But I only do ordinary things."
 - 1. Christian slaves complain of "ordinary life."
 - 2. "I don't want to be ordinary,"
1 Corinthians 12:15-16.
 - B. It's not what you do; it's who you are.
 - 1. How God judges our value, 1 Samuel 16:7;
Zephaniah 3:17; Deuteronomy 7:6, 14:2,
26:18.
 - 2. God values people who only perform the ordinary, Matthew 3:17; Mark 12:42-44.
 - C. God makes you extraordinary, Deuteronomy 7:6,
14:2; John. 15:16; 1 Peter 2:9-10.
- III. Extraordinary people perform extra-ordinary deeds.
 - A. A mistake in judgment: Deeds give meaning to people, Matthew 7:22-23.
 - B. Correct judgment: The person gives meaning
to the deed, Matthew 10:42; Colossians 3:22-23;
Psalm 56:8; Mark 14:9.
- IV. Ordinary deeds receive extraordinary rewards,
2 Chronicles 15:7; 2 Corinthians 4:17; Hebrews 6:10;
Jeremiah 31:16.