

Joy By Choice Not By Chance

Luke 6:22-23

- I. "You can't be serious."
  - A. "We could only obey You by choosing joy."
  - B. "Joy comes merely by chance. We have no control over happiness."
- II. "I can't believe it! These people choose to be happy."
Acts 5:41; 16:25; Hebrews 10:34.
- III. Choose joy.
  - A. Participate in Jesus' super human joy.
    - 1. Jesus' invitation, John 15:11, 17:13.
    - 2. Jesus-type joy originates in another world, John 16:22; Psalm 4:7.
    - 3. Is brought to us by the irresistible Holy Spirit, Galatians 5:22; Acts 13:52; Psalm 139:7.
  - B. Believe you can choose to be happy.
    - 1. God's children are more than mere earthlings, Colossians 1:13; 1 Peter 2:9.
    - 2. We are earthlings with a heavenly life support system, Galatians 2:20; John 14:6.
    - 3. Joy flows down to us from this life support system, 1 Peter 1:8; Psalm 16:11, 21:6.
    - 4. We release this joy through believing we can choose it.
  - C. Assert your independence from "joy by chance."
    - 1. "Assert" means "stating confidently without need for proof or regard for evidence."
    - 2. Joy by chance depends entirely upon earthly proof and evidence.
    - 3. Refuse to allow this type of joy to control your emotions, Hebrews 11:1; 2Corinthians 5:7.
- IV. Let us rejoice, Psalm 118:24.
