

Saying the Right Things About Yourself

Mark 1:4-6, John 1:19-23

- I. “John came preaching a baptism of repentance, Mark 1:4.
- II. “The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were baptized,” Mark 1:5.
- III. John’s simplicity of lifestyle, Mark 1:6.
- IV. “The Jews of Jerusalem sent priests to ask him who he was,” John 1:22
- V. “What do you say about yourself?” John 1:22
- VI. Saying the right things about yourself.
 - A. Accept self-questioning as normal.
 1. John didn’t panic or condemn self.
 2. Questions arise in normal minds, Matthew 4:3, 5-6, Matthew 27:46; Psalm 22:5-6, John 8:53.
 3. Self-questioning doesn’t indicate abnormality, only humanity.
 4. Enemy’s intention: weaken us through our responses to self-questioning, Numbers 13:33.
 - a. Questions never weaken us.
 - b. Responses either weaken or strengthen.
 - B. Welcome God’s favorable testimony about yourself.
 1. “John replied in the words of Isaiah,” John 1:23
 2. Scripture records God’s favorable testimony about His people, Daniel 7:22, John 5:32, Psalm 5:12, 84:11, Romans 8:31.
 - a. “A declaration that proves a fact.”
 - b. Valid—strong truth that cannot be overthrown or set aside.
 3. Don’t argue with your own sinful human nature; simply welcome God’s testimony, Proverbs 23:9.
 4. We don’t need man’s testimony about man, John 2:25
 5. We need God’s testimony about His children, Zephaniah 3:17.
- VII. If God said it about you, you can say it about yourself, Matthew 4:3-4.

Saying the Right Things About Yourself

Mark 1:4-6, John 1:19-23

- I. “John came preaching a baptism of repentance, Mark 1:4.
- II. “The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were baptized,” Mark 1:5.
- III. John’s simplicity of lifestyle, Mark 1:6.
- IV. “The Jews of Jerusalem sent priests to ask him who he was,” John 1:22
- V. “What do you say about yourself?” John 1:22
- VI. Saying the right things about yourself.
 - A. Accept self-questioning as normal.
 1. John didn’t panic or condemn self.
 2. Questions arise in normal minds, Matthew 4:3, 5-6, Matthew 27:46; Psalm 22:5-6, John 8:53.
 3. Self-questioning doesn’t indicate abnormality, only humanity.
 4. Enemy’s intention: weaken us through our responses to self-questioning, Numbers 13:33.
 - a. Questions never weaken us.
 - b. Responses either weaken or strengthen.
 - B. Welcome God’s favorable testimony about yourself.
 1. “John replied in the words of Isaiah,” John 1:23
 2. Scripture records God’s favorable testimony about His people, Daniel 7:22, John 5:32, Psalm 5:12, 84:11, Romans 8:31.
 - a. “A declaration that proves a fact.”
 - b. Valid—strong truth that cannot be overthrown or set aside.
 3. Don’t argue with your own sinful human nature; simply welcome God’s testimony, Proverbs 23:9.
 4. We don’t need man’s testimony about man, John 2:25
 5. We need God’s testimony about His children, Zephaniah 3:17.
- VII. If God said it about you, you can say it about yourself, Matthew 4:3-4.