

Staying Sweet When Others Foul Things Up

Genesis 40:13-15, 23

- I. "Within three days pharaoh will...restore you to your position," Genesis 40:13.
- II. "When all goes well with you, remember me...and get me out of this prison," Genesis 40:14.
- III. "He did not remember Joseph—he forgot him," Genesis 40:23.
- IV. Staying sweet when other foul things up for you.
 - A. Rest in God's ability to work things out for your good, Genesis 41:14; Romans 8:28; Proverbs 21:1; 16:4.
 1. God expertly causes things to go better than we expect, Luke 4:1-2, 14; Matthew 28:18; Acts 21:27, 30, 33, 40; Exodus 14:10, 27-28.
 2. God's ability to fix things up exceeds other's ability to foul things up, Genesis 50:20; Psalm 115:3; Proverbs 19:21; Lamentations 3:37.
 3. "Make every effort to enter rest," Hebrews 4:11; Isaiah 32:18.
 - B. React to God first—not to people, Genesis 45:5, 8; Luke 23:34; Psalm 24:1.
 1. Others never foul things up for us.
 2. We foul things up for ourselves by reacting to others, Luke 9:52-54; 22:49-51.
 3. Bitterness chokes us with ungodly feelings that stifle our love for God and others.
 4. React to God with thanksgiving for fixing things up, Ephesians 5:20; 1 Thessalonians 5:17.
 5. Thanking God rescues us from bitter feelings.
- V. A sweet spirit—a thing of beauty, Genesis 45:7; 50:21.
